edication

To those of us who know her best, Miss Edna Schumm will always be "the little lady with the great courage." Her word is like a guarantee; whenever she has recommended a student for a position, that person has been accepted. One almost has the feeling that Miss Schumm regards her pupils as her children, and for each she has wanted nothing but the best.

Miss Schumm never refuses to help the one who needs extra time; and her patience and justice are well known to most of us.

And so to you, our dear Miss Schumm, with respect and hearts full of love, we humbly dedicate the 1966 O'Citian.

The 11th Annual Homecoming Queen, Miss Carolyn Kline was elected by the student body. Each attendant was chosen by their class as representatives. They in turn chose their escorts.

Queen Carolyn was crowned by the reigning queen, Mrs. Neila Prichard Allmindinger, and was presented a bouquet of red roses by Jim Dibert, the team captain.

The queen and her court reigned over the annual Homecoming Dance after the game.

Y-Teens is the largest organization at high school with an enrollment of 49. Y-Teens is an international organization formed for service to the entire world.

Many activities were planned and carried out by the cabinet members and their groups. To begin our basketball season with a bang the Y-Teens sponsored a Can-Can Hop after which the cans of food were donated to the Salvation Army. The Club in order to boost the team sold "Warrior Nighties and License Plates." Recognition was given to the club for the large contribution they made to the World Clothing Fund Drive. The Y-Teens proved to make this year a very profitable one for all.

The officers for the Y-Teens this year were Bev Grant, President; Jane Mathew, Vice President; Carolyn Kline, Secretary; Linda Stetler, Treasurer; Sandra Rickard, Student Council Representative; Pam Ellinger, Program Chairman; Sally Ricketts, Interclub Council Representative; Annette Elick, Song Leader; Mrs. Sullivan, Sponsor.

This is the '66 O'Citian Staff, who for the last 9 months has spent study halls, afternoons, evenings, and even holidays in putting this yearbook together for you, the graduating class of 1966, so that you might always remember these wonderful times. We have captured moods, expressions, ideas, pranks, and thoughts becoming reality. There are moments not pictured and moods not quite expressed, but you will remember them. It is for this reason that we spent months upon months preparing this book - that we may always look back and say this is how it was.

Junior Senior Prom

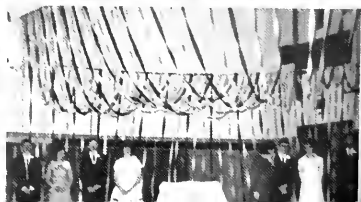

Graduation Day

The emptiness in our life was once filled by an indifferent Sophomore year, a rollicking Junior year, and a dynamic Senior year. Now, the emptiness returns as we leave the halls of O.C.L. and the finality of our leaving will never be overcome.
